Pastor's Ponderings

I have mentioned before the concept of making “last year resolutions” instead of “new year resolutions.” The idea is to contemplate your death. What if this coming year were to be your last on this earth? What would you resolve to do?

I asked myself that question in earnest twenty years ago as I lay in bed on December 24, 2005, two days after having cancer surgery. Melanoma—just skin cancer, not brain cancer, not involving internal organs or bone marrow, but melanoma is an aggressive and potentially deadly cancer. I should have had that spot on my back examined months earlier. The dermatologist looked at it and ordered an immediate biopsy. The biopsy was positive and they wanted me in surgery the next week. They would cut out a 1-inch margin around the tumor and run further tests to make a stage diagnosis and see what further treatment might be needed. Due to the Christmas holiday and then a weekend, I would wait eight days for results. I had time to think. In 2005, the survival rates for melanoma were lower than today. What if I had only a year to live? I thought about what I would want to leave behind for my daughters; I thought about dear friends I would want to see; I thought about how I was spending my life day to day—my current patterns of living. I thought about what is truly important in life.

I finally got the news the following week that there was no evidence the cancer had spread, so it was unlikely to kill me any time soon. But, I thought, now that I’m going to live, why not go ahead and do the things I had realized I would want to do if I was going to die—the things I realized were truly important? After all, we are all going to die, we just don’t know when. It is because of that cancer experience and the decision to do in the next year of my life what I would have done if it were my last year, that I am now married to the woman I’m married to, and am a pastor here in Western NY instead of a professor in Atlanta.

The stark thought of dying prompted me to make major life decisions I’m glad to have made, to live in ways that were more life-giving. I do not think God gave me cancer so that I would make those decisions. I don’t think God micromanages the world in that way or goes around handing out deadly diseases. But I do think the decisions I made while contemplating death moved me in directions more aligned with God’s will and with what is truly important in life. The cancer re-emerged twice more with increasing severity half a dozen years later, in 2011 and 2012, giving me fresh opportunities to contemplate death and re-evaluate how I was using my life. I am glad to still be living thirteen years later and now I try to remember to contemplate death regularly, without the prompt of cancer. There are stories of some monks making their own coffins and then keeping them in their cell or bedroom, not to be morbid, but in order to sustain their resolve to keep their minds focused on what is ultimately important in life. (Rest assured, I do not have a me-sized coffin in the parsonage at this time)!

As we move into this new year, I invite you to consider making some “last year resolutions.” May it be a very good year for all of us, and not our last.

Blessings and peace,

Ted

Update on Sunday school activities... - Cris Palczak, Sunday School Superintendent

I hope everyone enjoyed the children's Christmas Play. This year's play was Twinkle, the Christmas Star by Mary Brendan Conlon. It had a lot of moving parts. I am very proud of the Sunday school class, they did an amazing job. The play would not have been a success without help.

Thank you to the parents and Linda Bishop for helping with changing costumes. And a special thanks to Amy McCourt for making the stars. It was great to enjoy delicious treats with everyone during the coffee hour. Thank you to everyone that brought in something to share. Hope everyone had a great Christmas! There's no Sunday school on January 4th.

ANY WEATHER RELATED CLOSINGS will be posted on TV Channel 2 WGRZ, and WIVB News 4, and on our website and Facebook. If there is ever a question of unsafe conditions on roads near you, please do stay home and safe. If we choose not to cancel the service you can always watch it on YouTube or Facebook.

Missions

The Women's Group is asking for donations to send to Plymouth Crossroads. Food, personal items for teenage boys, bedding items, cleaning or paper products. Bring to church during the month – there will be collection baskets outside church office.

We are delighted to welcome Robin Miller as our new Church Musician!

Initially Robin filled in for us as a temporary organist and pianist for a few worship services in September. She returned again on a temporary basis to provide music for worship in November and December. Beginning January 1, 2026 she will be officially contracted with us as our regular Church Musician.

Robin is a life-long resident of Hamburg. She graduated from Hamburg High School, class of 1977, and received Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Mathematics from Canisius College and SUNY at Buffalo. She was a mathematics professor at ECC's City Campus from 1988 to 2006.

A musician at heart, she has played French horn in many local music ensembles, including over 30 years with the Orchard Park Symphony. She has been a substitute pianist at several local Presbyterian and UCC churches and served as the Music Director at First Congregational UCC in Angola from 2006 to 2018. She is especially devoted to playing piano programs for local nursing and assisted living facilities, adult day centers, and senior housing sites.

Robin lives with her wife, Debi Dinkuhn, and their beloved long-haired dachshund, Frankie. And, a fun fact: Robin is the niece (and god-daughter) of Linda Smerka, and Linda is responsible for Robin becoming aware of the church musician position at Faith!

We couldn't be happier she is here at Faith United Church of Christ.

Note from Robin: I'd like to thank you good folks of Faith for all your gifts, including your support, encouragement, and warmth, as well as your generosity. I am looking forward to serving you, working with you, and contributing to your worship experience through God's gift of music. Blessings to you all! - Robin

FELLOWSHIP

Men's Group – In November the Men's Group: Set clocks back - tested all smoke detectors - tested all emergency lights. Installed new batteries in all above where needed. Cleaned out gutters at parsonage and church. Gas meter reading the end of November - 00-1222. Front elevator entrance – a company came in and re-leveled concrete sidewalk. Set-up manger scene outside/Christmas trees and decorations inside church. Oiled the main re-circulating pump for the boilers and checked oil in the air compressor that controls the thermostats.

Our Men's Group monthly meeting is Saturday, January 10th at 9:00 a.m. We meet in the Fellowship Hall downstairs. We will gather to take down the Manger and Christmas decorations. In February the Men's Group meeting will be on Saturday, February 7th at 9:00 a.m. As always we will talk about the small tasks at hand and then proceed to complete the tasks if possible! Then we gather back in the Fellowship Hall for coffee, pastries and conversation. If you have any questions, feel free to speak to Bruce Lounsbury on a Sunday morning or call him at 716-662-7357.

Women's Support – The Women's support group January meeting is soup and game night on Wednesday, January 14th at 4:30 p.m. Pat and Karen will host.

We will not have any meeting in February, but are asking for donations to send to Plymouth Crossroads. Food, personal items for teenage boys, bedding items, cleaning or paper products. Bring to church during the month – there will be collection baskets outside church office.

Library - Usually when we think of the homeless we think of adults living on the streets. But there is a whole other group of homeless – teenagers that have run away or have been forced out of their home. Sometimes God Has A Kid's Face, by Sister Mary Rose McGeady, tells the stories of some of these teenagers, and their struggles to find acceptance. It is an example that hope can survive no matter what.

This book can be found in the Church Library, located in the Gathering Room.

Please call the church office, 716-941-3529, or Lois T., 716-941-3248, should you need to change the schedule. We appreciate you taking time to share your love of Christ with others by welcoming them to our worship service.

Publicity: Pictures taken at church events are often used for publicity, especially on the church's website. If you do not want you or your child's picture used, please contact the church office. It will be assumed that it is okay to use your picture if we do not hear from you.

Devotional Meditation: A meditation from Quiet Your Mind

Devotional meditation is a spiritual practice of quiet contemplation, prayer, and reflection focused on connecting with God. Fostering intimacy, faith, and a transformed life, moving from mere information to deeper, heart-felt experience with God.

God is within the silence. Find a quiet spot, sit comfortably, breathe deeply to relax and invite stillness, inhaling God's goodness and exhaling fear or tension.

Then bring your attention to scripture (Psalms 46:10 or John 15:4) Or repeat the Mantra "God loves me." Come into a deeper connection with each breath, each repeated Mantra, finding God within your still, loving heart. Listen more than you talk; allow God to speak to you.

Then reap the benefits of a strengthened relationship with God. Finding hope, peace and purpose within. Growing in inner transformation, living more intentionally with the response of God's love.

Quiet Your Mind, Find Your Peace: Intro to Meditation starting on Mondays January 5th at 7pm.
